Designer of Greenest House In Town Joins EarthFest at West Lineup

Isabelle Duvivier, principal of Duvivier Architects, will be among the expert presenters at the 7th Annual EarthFest LA being held at West Los Angeles College on Saturday, September 15. Duvivier's firm, Duvivier Architects, recently completed the renovation of a home in Venice, CA which raised it to LEED Platinum status. The home is now one of the highest LEED rated homes in the nation. Duvivier Architects is also the winner of the "2008 Santa Monica Sustainable Quality Award." Ms. Duvivier has 15 years of experience in the fields of urban design, environmental planning, ecology, architecture and environmental education.

EarthFest LA is a free environmental expo with informational booths, vendors and expert speakers as well as a benefit smooth jazz / R&B concert. Other speakers include:

Daniel Villao, primary author of "Beyond Green Jobs," and State Director of the California Construction Academy at the UCLA Labor Center. He will discuss the economic and environmental benefits of a greener economy.

DeAna Vitela, CEO and partner of AquaBio Environmental Technologies, will address the future of water sustainability. She has advised federal task forces concerning restoration and treatment of water ways, lagoons and effluents from urban runoff and waste treatment facilities.

A panel sponsored by Food & Water Watch will discuss the impact of fracking following an abbreviated screening of "Gasland" by Josh Fox.

For the schedule of presentations, visit www.EarthFestLA.org.

The concert benefiting California Greenworks, Inc., will run from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Headlining is Grammy winning smooth jazz artist Paul Brown. Also appearing is chart-topping contemporary jazz musician Darren Rahn; R&B vocalist Wendy Moten; jazz fusion band DW3; and Motown-influenced
